

Top Signs "It's Time To Own Your Own Home!"

12. You are tired of the neighbor's loud music through the paper thin walls in the apartment complex.

11. You're ready to stop paying your landlord's mortgage payment, and want to start building wealth that you can call your own.

10. You want to order address mailing labels, stationary and have mail delivered to your "HOME."

9. You desire a vested interest in your community.

8. It's mid-August and it is a lovely 100 degrees outside and you can no longer tolerate waiting for your landlord to send "Bubba" to fix your air conditioner.

7. You are working at a job where you won't leave the country every other month or year.

6. You want to provide your family with a sense of stability and plant roots. You want to mow your own grass!

5. You are tired of waking up at 5:30 am and having to take the dog down on the leash the nearest "green space" for the dog to do his business.

4. You want to paint the walls of your bedroom any color you please and install a ceiling fan in the living area.

3. You are tired of saving quarters for the Laundromat and having to baby sit the laundry so no one steals your undergarments, again!

2. When you say you are "going home," you want to really mean it!

1.. You need the property tax and mortgage interest deductions for Uncle Sam in April.
